About
Hi, I'm Tracey Ngo, a student at Coder Academy. I have always been interested in the Tech field but, never had the chance to explore and learn about it until recently. I have taken courses, learning HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, and attended seminars to further my knowledge and to explore the career path I want to take. As for my future, I hope to one day work as a web developer and work with a diverse team.
In my free time, I enjoy learning a new language and, reading.
